 By CHARLES TENNY JACKSON
 AN AMERICAN NOVEL OF REMARKABLE INSIGHT AND KNOWLEDGE, CELEBRATING THE PREVALENT IDEA OF REFORM AS CONCEIVED BY A NEW GENERATION, ACCEPTED BY PATRIOTIC AMERICANS AND SPREADING FAR AND WIDE THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY. IT IS A POWERFUL TALE OF THE INSURGENT PRESENT, DEMOCRATIC AND PROGRESSIVE.

Start Him Right
 The Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company issues policies on the lives of boys as young as 14 years, and if you have a boy between 14 and 21, you cannot do a better thing for him than to let him carry a policy of from $1,000 to $10,000. Carry it for him, or help him do so, if he is making money, and then when he is 21, let him carry it on until it is paid up. Carrying the policy will inculcate in him the habit of saving at least a part of what he earns—a lesson that all young men who meet with business success MUST learn while they are young. If he starts now he will, if he lives, have a paid up policy still a young man, and will always thank dad for the foresight he showed in having him insure young. We find men every few days who lament the fact that they did not start sooner. Ask for particulars.
SAM M. GRIST, Special Agent

Two Paths and Where They Lead
 THRIFT AND LUCK
 This is a question that a young man cannot ask himself too often. Nothing is more clearly established in this practical world than that Business Success can come only as the result of an adherence to well established policies. Like every recognized truth, however, there are occasional exceptions.
 Once a very long while—men do succeed with makeshift efforts. Once in a while LUCK does play the pleasant part. Once in a great while Wisdom plays second fiddle to Folly; but not often. The trouble with most of us is that we lay too much stress on these rare exceptions.
 A man may be shiftless and still wear a silk hat; but if we will observe carefully, we will find that "THRIFT with ECONOMY" is the foundation of practically all of the successes we can place in mind.
